29th April 2022

Dear Colleagues

ANNUAL CONFERENCE 2022 – EMERGENCY MOTION

On 26th April 2022 the NEC agreed to submit an Emergency Motion for Annual Conference 2022 to the Standing Orders Committee. The Standing Orders Committee accepted the Emergency Motion on the 28th April 2022 and this will be added to the Agenda of Annual Conference in the packs that you receive at Eastbourne Registration.

However, the Emergency Motion must be added to the Agenda sent out electronically to Branches and must form part of any mandate from a Branch to the Delegates who will attend Conference. For your information, the Emergency Motion reads;

“The POA recognise that there is no place in politics for misogyny, this conference demand an investigation into the recent despicable alleged comments from MPs within the Tory party against the deputy leader of the Labour Party.

This investigation should be a cross party investigation, no political representative should have to endure such comments and all parties should strive to strike out any such discrimination from members of parliament”.

Please bring this Circular to the attention of all members.

Yours sincerely

STEVE GILLAN
General Secretary
